Go Organic Cambodia

What we do

Awareness Raising

Raise awareness about how organic products are the best choice for our health and the health of the planet by deepening our understandings of environmental, economic, social and health related benefits of organic farming.

Advisory support

Assist producers by offering a customized training and consultancy on organic farming and organic certification in order to achieve the integrity of organic production.

“La Plantation has been sharing organic values with COrAA since its inception. COrAA has helped our team to follow organic agriculture best practices.”

Nathalie CHABOCHE
Owner of LA PLANTATION in Kampot

Marketing support

Support marketing of Cambodian organic products for export markets and promote collaboration across organic value chains (producers, processors, retailers, consumers).

Organic Certification

Set standards for organic production and provide clear standards and a rigorous verification program, in order to assure a trustworthy supply of organic products for consumers in Cambodia.

COrAA is a member of Certification Alliance also known as CertAll. Through the CertAll collaboration arrangement between 10 certification bodies working in the Asia region, COrAA is able to facilitate export certification to Canada, USA, China, Thailand and other markets.

“I found COrAA in 2013, it gave us very helpful advice to plant organic products and (its) certification gives credibility on the marketing process.”

Vanna UNG
Executive Director, WoT Natural Khmer Moringa
